DETAILED ACTION

This Office Action is in response to Amendment B, Paper No.9,m dated 11/15/02.

Claim Objections

Claim 40 is objected to because of the following informalities: Typo- “compressive” should be COMPRESSIVE. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 41-43 recites the following limitations "said step of planarizing" and "said region" in line one of each claim. Applicant's claims do not refer to a "region" nor a "planarizing step". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 38-40 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ismail et al ('713).

In reference to claim 35, Ismail et al a method comprising:

Providing a semiconductor substrate (Fig.2 (20)); and Providing on the substrate a graded region incorporating compressive strain to offset tensile strain arising during processing (Col.7, lines: 1-20).

In reference to claim 39, Ismail teaches wherein the graded region comprises Si and Ge graded to an increasing concentration of Ge (Col.6, lines: 35-40), and the step of incorporating compressive strain comprises decreasing a temperature at which the graded region is grown as the Ge concentration increases in the graded region (Col.6, lines: 40-55) .

In reference to claim 40, Ismail teaches wherein incorporating compressive strain comprises growing alloys of GeSi at 35-100%(Col.6, lines: 25-35).

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).
